SIZE & DESCRIPTION

The Box Butte Creek Hunting Property is a beautiful, uniquely located property with a year-round live water creek, wildlife pond, and plenty of trees, all of which provide great wildlife habitat for the pheasant, duck, goose, turkey, sharp-tail grouse, deer, and fish populations found on the property.

The property consists of 680± acres of rolling countryside with a combination of grass pasture, tree-covered acreage, and farm ground at an elevation of approximately 3,850 feet above sea level. Land use consists of 187± acres of grass pasture; 287± acres of farm ground; 169± acres under CRP and Wetland contracts; and the balance of the property is comprised of trees and the homestead. The owner is retaining the current wheat crop through harvest.

This property was homesteaded by the owner's family in the 1800s and has remained under family ownership. Improvements include a beautiful, large older home surrounded by a big barn and outbuildings including corrals. The owners have had over 24,000 trees planted across the property including different kinds of fruit trees. Box Butte Creek meanders through the property and has a wildlife pond, created by a dam, with nice-sized fish, predominately bass, in it.

There are approximately 169.9± acres that are currently enrolled in four separate Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) and Wetlands Contracts. Annual payments from these contracts are approximately $6,978.

NAME	PAYMENT	EXPIRATION DATE
(CRP) Contract #572	$1,687	September 30, 2017
(CRP) Contract #571	$3,634	September 30, 2017
(Wetlands) Contract #570	$1,312	September 30, 2017
(Wetlands) Contract #569	$ 345	September 30, 2017

CARRYING CAPACITY / RANCH OPERATIONS

The owner-rated carrying capacity of the pasture ground is approximately 3.2 acres/head for yearlings during the growing season due to the amount of pasture land that is sub-irrigated. Note: Carrying capacity can vary due to weather conditions and management practices. Interested parties should conduct their own analysis.

SOILS

The soils found on the Box Butte Creek Hunting Property are made up of loams with the larger percentage of soils consisting of Keith loam, Manter-Satanta loam, Busher-Jayem loam, Hemmingford loam, and Janise loam.

LEASE INFORMATION

There is a grazing lease in place from May until late October 2016 for approximately 50 cow/calf pairs.

WATER RESOURCES

There are no irrigation water rights on the property. Water for the property is provided by three older wells which are not registered with the State Of Nebraska. One to the north of the property is a windmill to provide livestock water and is approximately 150' deep with a static water level of 35'. There are two wells close to the house which provide water for the house and for the corral area. They are both approximately 125' deep and also have a static water level of 35'. A ground water quality test conducted by the Upper Niobrara White Natural Resources District (the local natural resources district) which was documented in February of 2013 will be made available to prospective buyers upon request.

MINERAL RIGHTS

Fifty percent (50%) of any and all mineral rights associated with the property owned by Seller, if any, shall transfer to Buyer at day of closing. Seller shall retain the remaining fifty percent (50%) of any and all mineral rights for not less than twenty-five (25) years after day of closing; whereupon, if no oil and gas or mineral activity has occurred, the remaining fifty percent (50%) of said mineral rights shall transfer to the Buyer or subsequent owner of the property.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

Nebraska is a state that lies in both the Great Plains and the Midwestern United States. Its state capital is Lincoln and its largest city is Omaha, which is on the Missouri River. The state is crossed by many historic trails, and was explored by the Lewis and Clark Expedition. The California Gold Rush brought the first large numbers of non-indigenous settlers to the area. Nebraska became a state in 1867.

Nebraska has a progressive income tax. Nebraska has a state sales and use tax of 5.5%. Some Nebraska cities assess a city sale and use tax, in 0.5% increments, up to a maximum of 1.5%. All real property within the state of Nebraska is taxable unless specifically exempted by statute. Since 1992, only depreciable personal property is subject to tax and all other personal property is exempt from tax. Inheritance tax is collected at the county level.

According to the BLS current population survey (CPS), the unemployment rate for Nebraska in December 2014 was 3.1%. The state unemployment rate was 2.5 percentage points lower than the national rate for the month.

According to the United States Census Bureau QuickFacts, the State Of Nebraska median household income, 2009-2013 was $51,672 compared to the national average of $53,046.

COMMUNITY AMENITIES

The Box Butte Creek Hunting Property is located in the north central panhandle of Nebraska between great ranch country and large farming operations. It lies in the midst of the central flyway known for its great waterfowl hunting. The local community is agriculture-based and the area is steeped in history. Ft. Robinson, a major western fort in the early days of the American West, lies northwest of the property. Traveling approximately 100 miles from the property to Hot Springs, South Dakota, known as the Southern Gateway to the Black Hills, you can visit all the famous attractions found throughout the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Alliance, Nebraska is the county seat for Box Butte County and is located 20 miles southwest of the Box Butte Creek Hunting Property. It is the local retail center of the area with stores, banks, restaurants, and medical facilities which include a hospital. It is also the location of a BNSF Railway hub which is one of area's major employers. Alliance is the home to Carhenge, a replica of Stonehenge constructed with automobiles, which is located north of the city.

Hemingford, Nebraska is approximately 18 miles west of the Box Butte Creek Hunting Property. It is an agricultural community with a good school system which recently won its first state football championship. The local school district for the property is located in Hemingford, and is also the site of the Box Butte County Fair.

Chadron, Nebraska is the county seat of Dawes County and home to Chadron State College. This historic city features several amenities including schools, shopping, medical facilities, banks, restaurants, golf course, several museums, libraries, Mari Sandoz High Plains Heritage Center, and much more. Chadron hosts annual events such as Fur Trader Days held every July and the Dawes County Fair usually held the last week of July into the first week of August each year. Located in and around Chadron are several historical sites including:

- Chadron State Park, Nebraska's oldest state park
- Toadstool Park which is known for its unusual geological formations
- The Hudson-Meng Bison Kill, a modern archeological excavation in progress
- Agate Fossil Beds National Monument, a 3,050 acre National Monument located on the Niobrara River
