Address: 5350 Lazy Horse Lane

Zoning: Agriculture

Option A: 480± acres $1,300,000

Option B: 160± acres $480,000

Option C: 80± acres $240,000

Property Features: Being offered for just the third time in history, the Semones Property represents a very rare opportunity to own 480 pristine acres in the heart of the Black Hills. Located approximately five miles from Spearfish and 11 miles from Deadwood with convenient year-round access just off Lazy Horse Lane, this picturesque property has been designated a US Forest Service Tree Farm due to a long history of responsible forestry practices. With two seasonal creeks and a beautiful combination of mature trees and bushes, this property is truly its own paradise. A network of well-kept logging road provides exceptional interior access while maintaining the privacy and grandeur that only a property of this size and location can provide. This property is truly unlike anything on the market today and is a must-see to appreciate.

REAL ESTATE RELATIONSHIPS DISCLOSURE

(This document is NOT a contract between you and this firm. This document is being provided to you as a consumer as you have not indicated to this agent you are a client with a written contract to another real estate firm).

As required by South Dakota Law, each firm has a responsible broker who must provide a written disclosure of the specific agency/brokerage relationships their firm may establish PRIOR to their agent discussing your confidential buying, selling, or leasing objectives of real estate or business opportunity. The following agency relationships are permissible under South Dakota law.

The office policy of Clark & Associates Land Brokers, LLC (firm) is to provide the relationships marked. This disclosure was provided by Mark McNamee _____ (agent) on behalf of Cory Clark (responsible broker).

When all agents of this firm represent only you:

Single Agency is when a firm and all of its agents represent only you and advocate for only your interests during a transaction. If at any time during the transaction any agent of the same firm represents both you and the other party, limited agency applies.

When only individually named agent(s) of this firm represents you:

Appointed Agency is when a responsible broker names a specific agent(s) of the firm to represent only you and advocate for only your interests during a transaction. Agents within the firm who have not been specifically appointed do not represent you and cannot advocate for your interests. If at any time during the transaction the responsible broker or a non-appointed agent within the firm represents the other party, limited agency applies to the responsible broker. If at any time during the transaction your appointed agent(s) represents both you and the other party, limited agency applies.

When all agents of this firm represents both purchasers and owners:

Limited Agency is when a firm represents both sides to a transaction and no agent within the firm solely represents you or solely advocates for your interests. Limited agency may only occur with prior written permission from both sides to a transaction. Within limited agency, the limited agent is required to represent the interests of you and the other party equally, and the agent cannot disclose your confidential information to the other party unless legally required to by law.

When a broker does not represent either party to a contract:

Transaction Brokerage is when a broker or agent assists one or more parties with a real estate transaction without being an agent or advocate for the interests of any party to the transaction.

Acknowledgment: I have been provided a copy of this disclosure indicating the brokerage and agency relationships offered by this firm. If this is a residential transaction, I also acknowledge the agent has given me a copy of the Consumer Real Estate Information Guide in booklet/printed format, or, if not provided, I authorize the agent to provide the guide electronically, as an attachment or link, to access the electronic version of the guide, at _____ (e-mail).
