HANOVER AND MIKADO DITCH CO. 102964 THYRA THOMSON
Secretary of State

We, the undersigned natural persons, of the age of twenty-one years or more, acting as incorporators of the corporation under W. S. 1957 Title 17 Chapter 8.1 adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

I.

The name of the corporation is HANOVER AND MIKADO DITCH CO.

II.

The period of its duration is perpetual.

III.

The object and purposes of the corporation is to provide for its stockholders a means of conveyance and carriage of water for all beneficial uses and purposes recognized by law, and in furtherance thereof this corporation is organized to:

Acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, grant exercise of the right of condemnation lands, permits, easements rights-of-way, and authority for the construction and enlargement of dams, ditches, reservoirs, sites and locations for same, for the collection, diversion, transportation, impounding, and distribution of water, and to acquire, such rights in waters as may be granted by law, which may benefit the members of the company.

Henry B. Benson

Purchase, trade for, accumulate, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, manage, control, sell, convey, transfer, and mortgage, pledge, exchange, encumber, or otherwise dispose of, or deal in or with any and all kinds of real or personal property or rights or permits that may be suitable, convenient, or necessary to the operation of the company's business.

(c)

Make, execute, and carry out contracts or agreements of any kind, with persons, firms, associations, corporations public, private or municipal or any agency or department of the State of Wyoming or the United States Government.

Borrow, collect, receive, accumulate, loan, pay out, disburse money in the course of its business; give notes, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness and secure same by pledge, mortgage, or other lien upon the assets and profits of the company.

Fix, charge, and collect from its members, rentals, assessments, and levies and charges for operation and maintenance, capital costs and improvements, and reserves of the company based upon the shares of stock issued in accordance with the By-Laws of this corporation, and to refuse to divert, carry, and distribute water upon failure of stockholders to promptly pay when due any such rental, assessment, or other charge which may be provided by law or by the By-Laws of the company.

(f)

Do any and all of the things necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for and in connection with or incidental to the accomplishment of any objects herein enumerated or designated, directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the corporation, and in general do any lawful act and exercise unlimited power concerning the corporation's business all as provided for in the Wyoming Statutes relating to the powers of non-profit corporations.

IV.

The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is twenty shares of common stock, without any nominal or par value. Each share of the capital stock of the company shall represent the right to convey and transport one cubic foot per second of time of water in the company ditch and shall be equal in rights to every other share of the capital stock of the company. The stock of the corporation may be issued by the corporation from time to time for such consideration and labor done, services performed, or money or property actually received, as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. No stock shall be issued by the company for cash unless the same is fully paid for at the time of issuance. The issued and outstanding stock of the corporation shall be assessable and liable on assessment share and share alike as the Board of Directors of the corporation may levy pursuant to the laws of the State of Wyoming and to the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the company. Shares of stock may be issued for fractional amounts. No dividends of any kind shall be paid upon the stock except upon liquidation of the corporation.

V.

That upon liquidation of the corporation the assets of the corporation shall be distributed to the holders of the issued and outstanding stock of the company, each share to participate, share and share alike, in the distribution of the assets.

VI.

The provisions for the regulations of the internal affairs of the corporation are:

(a) The Board of Directors shall exercise all powers of the corporation and carry out its corporate purposes.

(b) By-Laws for the governing of the corporation's affairs shall be adopted only by the stockholders.

(c) The Board of Directors shall consist initially of five members, but the number of the Board of Directors may be changed by the stockholders.

(d) Transfer of shares of stock of the corporation may be limited and restricted among those persons and upon such conditions as the Board of Directors and the By-Laws may prescribe and determine.

(e) Shareholders shall have no pre-emptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation.

(f) The corporation, by its Board of Directors, shall have the right and power to levy assessments upon the stock of the corporation which has been issued and is outstanding, whether such stock is fully paid up or otherwise. Assessments may be levied for capital costs as well as repairs, maintenance, and operation costs. The assessments shall be on all stock, share and share alike, and no share shall be exempt from the assessment because the owner thereof does not use water or convey water through the company's ditch during the time for which the levy is made. If any assessment levied be due and unpaid within ten days after the date prescribed for payment by the Board of Directors, then the Board may, in its discretion direct the appropriate officer of the company to forthwith deny use of the company's ditch and other facilities to such delinquent member, and shall refuse water to him and in addition the Board may forthwith institute an action to recover for and on behalf of the company all assessments due and payable. The Board of Directors shall cause said judgment to be satisfied by levy of execution upon the stock of the delinquent stockholder or by levy of execution upon his other property real or personal.

VII.

The address of the initial office of the corporation is: James E. Cable Ranch at Ranchester, Wyoming and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is: James E. Cable Ranchester, Wyoming.

VIII.

The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed by the By-Laws at the annual meeting of the shareholders. The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors of the corporation is five, and the names and addresses of those who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of the shareholders, or until their successors are elected and shall qualify, are:

James E. Cable	Ranchester, Wyoming

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6. There shall be five directors on the board of the company who shall manage the property and concerns of the corporation, and when a quorum of three of such directors are present, they shall have the following powers, to-wit:

To make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law or these by-laws for the company's business and affairs.

To exercise all of the powers and objects enumerated in the Articles of Incorporation under Paragraph III, and to do all things necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for and in connection with or incidental to the accomplishment of any of the objects and purposes therein contained and to do same for and on behalf of the corporation.

In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore and by statute conferred upon it, to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the corporation under the general corporation laws of the State of Wyoming subject, nevertheless, to the express provisions of the laws of the State of Wyoming, of the Articles of Incorporation and of the By-Laws of the corporation.

7. It shall be the duty of the directors to cause to be kept a complete record of all of their acts, and of the proceedings of the members meetings.

8. The Board of Directors shall supervise all officers, agents and employees and see that their duties are properly performed.

OFFICERS

9. The Board of Directors at its first meeting and after each annual meeting of the stockholders shall choose a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, and the secretary and treasurer may be one and the same person.

10. The Board, as it deems necessary, may appoint such other officers and agents who shall hold their offices for such terms and who shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as the Board may determine.

11. The officers of the corporation shall hold their office until their successors are chosen and qualify in their stead. In the event that any vacancy occurs in an office of this corporation, the Board of Directors shall have the right and power to appoint an officer to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

12. The officers and Board of Directors of the corporation shall draw no salaries but they may be allowed such actual expense as may be incurred by the said officers and Directors for and on behalf of the corporation, which expense shall be allowed by the Board of Directors. In the event that it is deemed necessary and appropriate by the Board of Directors to pay the secretary and treasurer a salary they may do so.

PRESIDENT

13. The president shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and directors and see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect.

14. The actual operations of this corporation shall be carried on by the president. The president shall make, execute, and deliver all contracts, leases, and conveyances, and notes for the payment of money or other obligations for payment of money for and on behalf of the corporation.

VICE-PRESIDENT

15. The vice-president shall execute the duties of the president in the absence or disability of the president.

TREASURER

16. The treasurer shall keep full and accurate accounts of the receipts and disbursements of the corporation in books belonging to the corporation and shall be responsible as required by the president to furnish an accurate and true statement of the financial condition of the corporation.

SECRETARY

17. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the board of directors and all meetings of the members and record all votes and proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose.

18. He shall keep the corporate seal of the corporation, the certificates of membership, fill up and countersign all certificates issued, and he shall affix said corporate seal to all papers of the corporation requiring a seal.

CAPITAL STOCK

19. One share of stock shall represent the right to convey and transport one cubic foot of water per second of time in the company's ditch and shall be equal in rights to every other share of stock. Shares of stock may be issued for fractional amounts.

20. Stock shall be transferable only upon the books of the company and the company shall be entitled to treat the record owner thereof as the owner of such stock and hold him liable for calls and assessments thereon. No share shall be transferred until all assessments thereon have been paid in full.

ASSESSMENTS

21. The Board of Directors shall have the right and power to levy such assessments as they in their uncontrolled discretion deem to be in the best interests of the company. Each assessment shall state the amount being assessed for repayment of construction costs or other capital improvements, the amount for current annual operation and maintenance, and the amount for a reserve fund, if any. The assessment shall be levied as often as the board may prescribe, but all levies shall be upon the stock, share and share alike, and no stock shall be exempt from assessment because the owner thereof does not use water through the company's ditch during the time for which the levy is made.

22. (a) If any assessment levied be due and unpaid within ten days after the date prescribed for payment by the Board of Directors, then the Board may direct the appropriate officer of the company to forthwith deny the use of the company's ditch facilities to such delinquent member.

(b) The Board of Directors shall, not later than one year, after the assessments have been delinquent institute an action at law to recover same for and on behalf of the company and the stockholder shall be liable for and pay all costs of collection including a reasonable amount as attorney's fees whether or not suit is brought.

(c) The Board of Directors shall also have the authority and power after the assessments have been delinquent, to notify the owner of the stock by registered mail at his last known address, as the same appears on the records of the company, of the time and place of a public sale of his stock, and thirty days after mailing said notice and after publication in a newspaper of general circulation in Sheridan County, Wyoming, once a week for four weeks, the board may cause the stock of such delinquent shareholder to be sold to the highest and best bidder upon such terms and conditions as they prescribe at the front steps of Sheridan County Courthouse at Sheridan, Wyoming and the proceeds from such sale shall be used first to pay the costs of sale, including a reasonable amount as attorney's fees, for payment of the delinquent assessments, and the overplus, if any, paid to the former shareholder at his last known address. The Board may then cancel the old certificate of stock of the delinquent member upon its records and issue a new certificate to the new stockholder.

All delinquent assessments shall bear interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

23. That the operation of the company's ditch, including when and how it shall be operated and carry water, and when, how, and in what amounts shall be under the sole control of the Board of Directors. The division of water at all diversion or take-off points from the company's ditch shall be measured by a Parshall flume or other approved measuring device.

24. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be the calendar year.

25. The Roberts Rules of Order shall be used in conducting all business of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at meetings.

AMENDMENTS

26. The By-Laws of this corporation may be repealed, altered or amended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the stockholders. Changes and additions to the present Code of By-Laws shall be copied immediately following the present By-Laws.
